in the mortgage industry for combining an Loan Application System with an automated Compliance Engine used for generating and monitoring a set of required procedures involved in moving and tracking a mortgage loan through one or more of the steps of 'originate' (301), 'approve' (307), 'close' (307), 'fund' (307) and 'ship'. The automated compliance engine itself is a system and method for automatically generating a set of required tasks for use in managing the mortgage loan process, including tasks required by applicably federal or state law. The system of the present invention automatically couples the regulatory compliance information engine and a task management system required to process loans and provides methods for integrating the Automate

COMPLIANCE ENGINE

RELATED APPLICATIONS

This application is a continuation-in-part to non-provisional co-pending application Serial No. 09/645,217 Filed August 24, 2000, titled "Method and Apparatus for a Mortgage Loan Originator compliance Engine." This application is filed in accordance with 37 CFR ' 1.53 (b)(2) and is also related to the following co-pending non-provisional utility applications Serial No. 09/645,799 filed August 24, 2000, titled "Method and Apparatus for a...

...FIELD

The present invention relates to the general field of computers, telecommunications, and computer and Internet related systems. More specifically the invention relates to systems and processes to be used in the mortgage industry for combining a customer Loan Application System with an automated Compliance Engine used for generating and monitoring a set of I O required procedures involved...

...and 'ship'.

BACKGROUND

Bank and other lending companies in the mortgage loan industry have developed automated loan application processing systems to make the loan application process more efficient and more centrally controlled. Such systems are typically programmed to generate some of the tasks associated with a mortgage loan application such as requesting an appraisal, evaluating the loan contract and application data, authorizing a loan, tracking the closing activities and completing the financial disposition of the...

...the tasks performed. Such oversight and control is assumed.

There is a need for an automated system for managing the processing of mortgage loan applications, wherein the identification of the loan originator, his/her location and the location of the property which is the subject of the loan, determine the Federal and State mortgage loan laws and regulations as well as the professional guidelines which govern the loan transaction, and wherein the automated system uses the specific loan regulations to determine the tasks required to complete a loan transaction, including tasks required by applicably federal or state law, provide the set of required tasks to lenders and other interested parties, record the completion...

lender, to use the set of tasks internally to drive the flow of the automated mortgage loan process to completion. Furthermore there is a need for such a regulatory compliance system which can easily be coupled to existing loan application processing systems.

The Federal laws and regulations in question are basically those outlined in the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) and the Federal Housing and Urban Development's (HUD's) implementing Regulation X. The State regulations in question are those State specific regulations and implementing instructions that serve a similar purpose, relating to Lender payments to Mortgage

Brokers and other settlement service providers. RESPA is the federal to said network, said user node under the control of a client loan application system for providing requests for information and providing mortgage loan application related commands on said network, a network node comprising:

a mortgage loan processing server node...

...the tasks comprising actions required to process the mortgage loan, including tasks required by applicable federal or state law ; and provides a second mechanism coupled to the first mechanism, for distributing one or more...

...of tasks to the user node.

. The network node of claim 12 wherein the mortgage loan processing server node provides a third mechanism to electronically communicate with the user node using an XML format for an API controlled by the mortgage loan processing server node.

14 The network node of claim 12 wherein the actions required to process the mortgage loan are based upon mortgage loan related laws and regulations comprising Federal , State , local and professional regulations and requirements and implementing instructions relating to loan processing.

15 A computer program product stored on a computed useable medium, comprising;

a first computer readable program mechanism for receiving a request to process a mortgage loan from a client loan application system;
0 a second computer readable program mechanism for generating a plurality of tasks, the plurality of tasks comprising actions required to process the mortgage loan, including tasks required by applicable federal or state law ; and a third computer readable code mechanism for distributing one or more of the plurality of tasks to the client loan application system.

16 The computer program product of claim 15 comprising a fourth computer readable code mechanism for monitoring completion of...

...whereby a report of completion of all required tasks can be generated.

17 The computer program product of claim 15 wherein the plurality of tasks required to process the mortgage loan are based upon loan related laws and regulations comprising Federal , State , local and professional regulations and requirements and implementing instructions relating to mortgage loan processing.

. The computer program product of claim 15 wherein the communications with the client loan application comprises messages containing data in XML format.

Calif issues tentative new regulations forbidding state-chartered savings and loan assns from rejecting home loan applications because mortgaged home is in ghetto or declining neighborhood. Proposed regulations would impose nation's stiffest controls yet over 'redlining' by mortgage insts. In releasing regulatory proposals, state officials also urged savings and loan indus to establish voluntarily a 'joint underwriting assn' with pool of money for loans in poor neighborhoods. If Calif insts do not take such actions on their own, Donald E Burns, Calif sec of business and transportation, says they can expect legis mandating them to do so. Rules will go into force Jan 1 and would apply only to state-chartered insts, not to those that operate under Fed charter (M.)

NYS Sen approves 4 bills that are part of Moreland Act Comm recommendations on more stringent nursing home standards. Proposal prohibiting legislators and legis staff members from representing clients before state regulatory agencies is bottled up in Sen Ins Com, where it has met major opposition. Bills approved authorize fines of up to $1,000 daily for violation of patient care standards, require nursing home operators to file detailed financial statements about operations of facilities and list all persons with 10% interest or more in bldg, home, mortgage or lease. Under proposals, Public Health Council will have to rev all new applications for nursing home licenses and determine whether proposed owners, operators, mortgage holders and stockholders who have been affiliated with nursing homes in past have provided 'substantially consistent high level of care' to patients at other facilities (M.)

NJ officials say that $47-million in Fed mortgage funds may be withheld from NJ because of state law prohibiting banks and other mortgage insts from charging special payments, called 'points,' for mortgage financing. Under provisions of Home Purchase Assistance Act, NJ banking and lending insts are eligible for $47-million through Govt Natl Mortgage Assn. Deputy State Banking Comr Clifford F Blaze repts that state statute banning point charges on all mortgages except FHA and VA is in conflict with new Fed program that bases its mortgage loans on point system. NJ Atty Gen William F Hyland is expected to rule later on whether Fed program can be implemented in NJ (M.)

NY State banking representatives and proponents of anti-redlining measures agree than provisions of new NY law banning redlining will be difficult to enforce due to lengthy litigation involved in proving redlining allegation. Meanwhile, state banking officials report confusion has arisen over section of law raising mortgage interest rate from 8.5% to 9.5%. Confusion stems from ambiguous language in portion of bill designed to protect consumers who applied for mortgages before interest ceiling was raised but whose loans were approved after law went into effect. Disagreement centers on whether protection applies to persons who had not received firm commitment on their mortgage applications (S).)

Control Bd approves 'no cost' labor contract between Teamsters Local 237 and City Housing Auth after rejecting certain fringe benefit increases. Leaves open question of future negotiations to reduce fringe benefits as part of set of agreements in principle dating from '76. Approves contract between Educ Bd and Council of Supervisors and Admr calling for some payment of increments but generally 'no cost' assumption entailing 'give ups' of certain benefits by workers. Abstract: Much has been written in recent years about the changes in corporate strategies and industry structures associated with electronic coordination of market activities. This paper considers the advent of electronic market coordination in the home mortgage industry, focusing on Computerized Loan Origination (CLO) systems. Case studies of five CLOs (First Boston's Shelternet, PRC's LoanExpress, American Financial Network's Rennie Mae, Prudential's CLOS, and Citicorp's Mortgage Power Plus) reveal a range of system functionalities. Predictions from the Electronic Markets Hypothesis (EMH) are tested against the empirical results of the five case studies. As suggested by the EMH, financial intermediaries have been threatened by the introduction of CLOS, and in some cases opposition has been mounted against the systems. On the other hand, despite the availability of the technology and mortgages' seemingly favorable characteristics as an electronically mediated market product, the industry has not been fundamentally changed by the introduction of these systems, despite more than a decade of experience with them. Of the two case studies that could be characterized as electronic markets, neither continues to exist in that form today. And the system with the largest dollar volume of mortgages of the five is best characterized as an electronic hierarchy. These results suggest that either the full results predicted by the EMH require a longer gestation period or that the underlying hypothesis will require augmentation in order to fully explain the results in the home mortgage market.

- Abstract: Many static and dynamic models have been used to assist decision making in the area of consumer and commercial credit. The decisions of interest include whether to extend credit, how much credit to extend, when collections on delinquent accounts should be initiated, and what action should be taken. We survey the use of discriminant analysis, decision trees, and expert systems for static decisions, and dynamic programming, linear programming, and Markov chains for dynamic decision models. Since these models do not operate in a vacuum, we discuss some important aspects of credit management in practice, e.g., legal considerations, sources of data, and statistical validation of the methodology. We provide our perspective on the state-of-the-art in theory and in practice.
